Statutory Inspection of Anglican and Methodist Schools (SIAMS)

All Church of England schools are subject to an inspection that is additional to Ofsted which focuses on the way in which our Christian nature helps our school community to flourish. We are overdue for a visit and very much hoping that they would come before July – and they are! We are pleased to tell you that our school will be inspected on Wednesday 29th April. The inspector will spend the day with us and explore what it means to be part of our Church of England setting. They will see lessons, talk to staff and governors, talk to groups of children and look at books and documentation. It will be a busy day, but we are looking forward to it!

Our uniform provider, Logos Unlimited, have moved premises and therefore their unit in Swalwell is closed. Their new address is:
